In a speech, Sir Nicholas said: "Churchill was himself a keen and expert landscape gardener and would truly have loved this place."

The Duke added: "So many people have contributed to the garden and I thank them all for their hard work in achieving this goal."

Afterwards the Duchess and the Duke unveiled a bust of Sir Winston within the garden, before attending a private ceremony inside the palace.

Adrian Daffern, rector of St Martin's Church who led the services at both events, said: "The two together, the unveiling of the window and the opening of the garden, are a very fitting marker of this 50 year moment after Churchill's death."

Pooh sticks championships draw hundreds to Witney

By Adam Flinn

adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

HUNDREDS of people gathered along the River Windrush in Witney on Sunday to compete in the World Pooh Sticks Championships.

This was the first year the championships were being held in Witney-taking place at Langel Common - having transferred from Little Wittenham last year.

The game sees Pooh fans dropping sticks over a bridge, then racing them downstream to see whose stick crosses the finish line first.

The World Pooh Sticks Championships have been held in the county for more than 30 years, and each year raises more than £3,000 for charity.

Oxford PSPO decision due

A CONTROVERSIAL order that could enforce limits on how long buskers can perform for in Oxford is set to be decided upon by the city council today.

The council's Executive Board will decide whether to approve the Public Spaces Protection Order (PSPO) at their meeting in Oxford Town Hall from 5pm.

It would give powers to issue fines for a number of 'antisocial' acts, including persistent begging, street drinking and busking for more than an hour in one place.

Fines of up to £1,000 could be imposed on those breaching the order.

The council had previously held a public consultation on the order, which led to the removal of rough sleeping from the actions covered.

But musicians and street performers staged protests in the city centre last month against the inclusion of busking on the order, which they claimed was too strict.

Under the order, buskers could only play for up to 60 minutes in one location, although the need for a permit would be removed.

No recommendation on whether to approve the order or not has been made by council officers ahead of the meeting.

Outdoor Fitness

OXFORD: About 100 Oxford residents headed down to South Park last month to get active outdoors as part of National Outdoor Fitness Day.

British Military Fitness (BMF) held free military fitness sessions in parks across the country to celebrate the day, which helped to raise money for The Royal British Legion.

Refugee Week

OXFORD: Oxford will play host to Refugee Week next week as national charities from around the country head to Oxford to talk about issues regarding refugees and asylum seekers.

The events will include talks on refugee issues in the UK and the Calais refugee camp, among others, in a programme that features music, theatre, films and a sponsored walk to Campsfield Detention Centre.

Eco homes

BICESTER: Homebuyers can now look at purchasing a true zero carbon house after 393 homes were launched for the public to look at on Friday.

The development Elmsbrook has been in construction since last April and was built with zero waste to landfill during construction.

Wildlife photos

OXON: The winners of the Oxford festival of wildlife photography competition have been announced after nearly 200 entries.

Alex White, 12, from Appleton, won the Under12's category with his image of broad-bodied chaser dragonfly taken at the Sutton Courtenay Environmental Education centre.

Other Oxfordshire winners included Rhea Draguisky, from Oxford in the 'Wild Places' category, Elaine Tuffery from Aston in the 'My Wild Life' category and Jack McEwan, from Oxford in the Under-18s category.

World record

OXON: Oxfordshire families are being encouraged to take part in Guinness World Record Attempt on June 13.

The Oxford Centre for Innovation is taking part in an attempt for the largest number of people simultaneously learning to code an Android app.

The record attempt will be held at 30 different locations across the UK.

Barks of approval for de-stressing

STUDENTS at Oriel and Queen's colleges in Oxford had a 'pawesome' time as they spent the afternoon playing with guide dogs to help them de-stress and raise money for charity.

Five dogs from charity Guide Dogs UK visited Oriel College last Friday to play with students currently sitting exams, raising £770 for the charity in the process.

Jade Tinslay, disabilities and equal opportunities rep at the college, organised the event.

She said: "I'd seen that other universities had done similar schemes for de-stressing events, so I thought it was a good idea.

"We got both Oriel and Queen's colleges' students involved, the charity got lots of its guide dogs along, so it was great bringing them together."

Another similar event is scheduled to be held for students at Somerville College in Oxford tomorrow.

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

The King's Head dates from 1801. The building itself has a datestone above the door from 1735 along with the initials of a carpenter, Walter Paine, and a carved monkey.

We are located in Woodstock seven miles to the north of Oxford.

The pub has a cosy bar area to the front with original stone walls and open fireplace. To the rear is a large dining area and attractive courtyard for those sunny days.

Well known for long being a Spud Pub, The King's Head now has a new team and menu.

The experienced chef Giovanni Ventriglia and the manager Luis Castro from Luna caprese Italian restaurant north parade Oxford are working here now

We stock cask ale such as Black Sheep and London Pride

At The King's Head we celebrate all that is the best of British.

We use as much local produce from Oxfordshire as possible focusing on freshness, seasonality and on being a traditional pub.

All our food is wholesome and homemade

FOOD A SPECIALITY

WEDDINGS

We are conveniently located for weddings and civil partnerships at Woodstock
Town Hall or St Mary Magdalene church.

Whether you prefer to have a small area or exclusive use of the whole pub, The King's Head can help you to create the perfect event.

We can assist you as much or as little as you prefer with all aspects of your day including flowers, wedding cake, photography and all different kinds of entertainment

Serving the best in Fritish seasonal food, bespoke sit down, canapé or buffet menus can be created to suit your requirements.

PRIVATE PARTIES

Exclusive use of the whole pub, our lounge area or dining room is available. In addition to our usual food and drink menus, bespoke canapé and buffet menus can be arranged along with special wines or cocktails.

Champions are in the city

DIVERSITY will be the word when folk rock, rock, soul and alternative country group Danny and the Champions of the World arrive at The Bullingdon this Saturday, June 13.

Formed in 2007 by Daniel 'Danny' Wilson, the group have released six albums in seven years and surprisingly only one single, called 'Restless Feet', out 2010.

"I don't know which tracks we'll be performing....we will tell you when we get there," Danny joked.

"We'll do something from all the albums, maybe the odd cover, maybe a 'Grand Drive' song....we play it by ear to be honest.

"We've also been at The Bullingdon many times. The first time I ever played there was way back in the early 'Grand Drive' days in about 2000 or something.

"I remember meeting a teenage Robin Bennett at Truck Festival and Goldrush who is now in the Dreaming Spires. He was there with his dad and little did I know that years later he'd be in the very first Champs line up!

Elvis back in TROUBLE in Benson

AFTER the success at Didcot Civic Hall, Trouble are once again performing their Authentic Elvis Show in association with Tamara Anthony Events at Benson Parish Hall.

This year marks the 80th Birthday of Elvis Presley, The King of Rock & Roll, and it's hard to believe that 2017 marks the 40th anniversary of his death. TROUBLE, a 6 piece professional band, formed in 2014 with the desire to provide an Authentic 3 hour Elvis show for fans, covering the 3 main eras of his career. The show begins with the Rock & Roll songs, including hits such as That's alright Mama, Treat me nice, Hound Dog and Devil in disguise. After a short break, it's straight into the "68 comeback special" with the leather outfit performing "One Night With You" and ending with "If I Can Dream," one of Elvis' personal favourites. The final session of the show is a two costume performance of the career defining Las Vegas shows, with all the favourites including "Suspicious Minds" and the amazing "American Trilogy" some of the best known performances.

TROUBLE's Band members aim to create an authentic show and believe they have; with microphone changes including the rare Vegas Electro-Voice RE15, Elvis' favourite performance mic and the iconic Shure 55 for the Rock & Roll set. This includes guitar changes and drum builds to define the musical progression throughout Elvis' career. Authentic costumes have been crafted by original designers of the King's outfits, giving the final authenticity that the band hoped for.

Projected imagery & amazing lighting make it hard to stay in your seat and not sing along or dance. Amazing reviews of performances can be found on Facebook, "Seen Trouble this evening, Elvis was amazing and the band were great", "Due to my age I wasn't alive to see the king perform, I have now," as well as reviews by the press as "a polished, professional and passionate performance" culminating into the opportunity to get a photo with the lead singer of the band.

A fantastic way to spend an evening, sure to be a hit with the Elvis fans.

Come along to see TROUBLE performing at Benson Parish Hall, Benson on 26th June. Doors open at 6:30pm and the show starts at 7:30pm.

Tickets £15.00 each or £125.00 for a table of 10.

Tickets available from: www.elvisintrouble.com Facebook: Tamara Anthony Events, Email: Leecollins789@yahoo.co.uk or call the Box Office on (01865) 580532 or (07756)185641

Jazz trio in Summertown

SOME of the world's finest musicians are discovered in unusual places.

Justin Bieber was discovered via YouTube, Matt Monroe was dubbed the 'singing bus driver' and jazz singer Catherine Sykes was discovered by her music teacher mother at their house in Yorkshire.

And it will be the latter who will be performing as part of a trio in Oxford on June 21, alongside bassist Paul Jeffries and pianist Alex Steele.

"I'm very lucky in the fact that I get to do something I love as a job," said Catherine.

"In fact it doesn't really feel like a

"On the day, I will be singing standards and songs from the Great American Songbook. I enjoy singing good show tunes in a jazz style which include songs like 'If I were a Bell' and 'Lullaby of Broadway'.

"And I think it's important to let the audience hear the tune that was written when performing them, so I think the crowd can expect to hear some songs they'll recognise."

and Julie London as her main influences, which has helped Catherine become one of the finest jazz performers in the country.

After graduating from the Leeds College of Music, the entertainer has since travelled the globe far and wide to perform in a number of five star hotels, leading Catherine to release two albums.

Her debut album 'Signing In' was featured on Humphrey Lyttleton's 'Best of Jazz' programme on BBC Radio 2, with her second album 'Something Wonderful' also receiving positive feedback from critics.

"One of the best things when performing is that when an audience is enjoying a gig, you feed off them and perform better," she said.

"An unfortunate fact is that a lot of performers are very insecure and are often worried that they are not performing to their best, or that the audience is not enjoying it.

"As soon as you feel warmth from the crowd, you tend to relax and as a result perform better.

"The joy is infectious on both sides and the gig seems to get better and

"And since the gig is on the June 21, perhaps they'll hear a couple of tributes to dads for Father's Day too."

The free gig starts at 6.30pm at the Oxford Wine Cafe in Summertown.

Cadbury Sisters

JESSICA, Mary and Lucy, also known as The Cadbury Sisters, will be at Fat Lils Bar and Grill in Witney, this evening, June 11.

The trio, who are originally from Bristol, are currently on a tour of the UK and will perform tracks off their latest EP.

The show starts at 7.30 pm.

The Young 'Uns

BAND, storytellers and workshop hosts The Young 'Uns will be at the Cornerstone Arts Centre in Didcot tomorrow evening, Friday, June 12.

The trio, who released their fifth album this year, have performed with Billy Bragg and were named as the best group at the 2015 BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards.

The gig starts at 8pm at the Station Road venue.

The Moody Blues

ROCK band legends The Moody Blues will be at the New Theatre Oxford on Sunday, June 14.

Originally formed back in 1964, the group were active for 10 years before going on a three-year hiatus.

They reformed back in 1977 and have been active ever since. It begins at 8pm.

12 June, 8am JdP Music Building, St Hildas's College, Cowley Place, OX4 1DY SUNFLOWERS & OTHER SOUNDS

*Brilliant young chamber orchestra, Project Instrumental, make their JdP Series debut and bring its spring season to a close, igniting a typically imaginative programme of the never heard before, the rarely heard and the preferably heard. A concert for those who prefer their classical music experiences enlivening and colourful, Sunflowers & Other Sounds balances two of the most exciting voices writing music today, alongside two pre-eminences in the history of Western classical music. The world premieres of Fakkens' neo concerto grassolike work for string trio and string orchectra and Cutler's new arrangement of his Music for Sunflowers for solo viola and string orchestra are bookended with Shostakovich's youthful, avant-gardist Prelude & Scherzo for string octet and Tohaikovsky's perennially soaring Serenade for Strings. Recently described as "simply knockout", Project Instrumental brings thrilling performances to unbounded audiences. Bold, imaginative and boundary defying, this virtuosic ensemble strips back the peripherals with their straightforward contemporary approach to classical music."

THE STORY OF GUITAR HEROES

*Brand new for 2015 - Precented by Phil Walker, The Story Of Guitar Heroes is a live concert style 'rockumentary', paying homage to some of the greatest guitar heroes of all time! The show takes you on a journey through the decades from the first legends of the Rock 'n' Roll era, through to the most creative and inspirational modern guitar heroes of today. Phil Walker and his band accurately recreate the sound and ambiance of heroes such as Eddie Cochran, Hank Marvin, Jimi Hendrix, Eric Clapton, Brian May, Slash, Joe Satriani and many

This awe inspiring show not only appeals to all those budding guitar heroes out there, but to music lovers of all ages. " Box Office: 01295 279002

Oxford earn fourth win

OXFORD RL broke club records after their 38-30 win over South Wales Scorpions on Sunday meant that they had secured a fourth successive home victory.

The Blues' home resurgence has led them to rise up the table to a respectable ninth after they secured eight points from four games at Iffley Road.

Ian Newbury crossed for the scorpions after just three minutes with Paul Emanuelli nailing the conversion before Oxford's Josh Scott hit back and Louis Richard added the extras.

Scorpions' Andy Joy broke through to add a second for the visitors with the conversion a success, before Oxford turned up the heat as Andy Matthews crossed twice with Richards converting twice.

Matthews went on to complete his Oxford hat-trick but Richard's kick hit a post and the visitors moved to 30-22 through Newbury.

Emanuelli converted before Oxford roared back into the game as Luke Evans and Matty Blythe dived over with Richards converting Evans'

Oxford sealed the win when Danny Thomas secured a late try and Richards' kick sealed the points for the home side.

Oxford University star has England backing

A UNIVERSITY of Oxford cricket star has received the backing of an England international after being named young cricketer of the year.

England all-rounder Moeen Ali has given advice to Tom Kohler-Cadmore to put his early season troubles to the back of his mind.

The 20-year-old Malvern College pupil has achieved a batting average just under-23 and is yet to hit a first-class century despite being named 2014 Young Cricketer of the Year by Wisden Schools.

Kohler-Cadmore hit 1,409 runs for Malvern College last season and Ali is backing him to be a part of the professional game for a long time.

Ali said: "Kohler-Cadmore is a good, young player to have in the

"He's probably struggled a little bit early this season but that can happen to anybody.

"He's going to score a lot of runs for Worcester and he has go so much potential to improve on.

Ali believes the capacity is there for the Oxford pupil to really become a force with the Worcestershire side and said his teammate 'can add the quality to get them over the line.'

Super double victory for veteran Plato

JASON Plato displayed a masterclass in touring car racing as he secured two first-place finishes at Oulton Park circuit at the weekend.

Plato's 91st and 92nd series victories were followed by a fifth place finish in race three which takes him to first in the British Touring Car Championship with 157 points.

The Team BMR driver secured a pole position for race one and commanded the track with complete precision and speed as he fought off rival driver Honda Yuasa Racing's Gordon Shedden through the whole race.

Race two's pole was also secured in immaculate fashion and Plato became the first driver to win twice in a weekend with 75kg of ballast on board this season.

Plato held his lead from the start but Shedden came roaring back in the final lap, though the Oxford driver held on for his second win of the weekend.

The 47-year-old's run with the Dunlop soft tyres in race three led to a fifth place finish, and Plato now commands a three-point championship lead over rival Shedden.

The championship leader said after the races: "I love this place.

"We had real confidence after out test here, we've got the car where we want it and when you're in the groove with the car and circuit, it makes the job a whole lot easier."

Wimbledon play-off test

TENNIS: Lucy Brown, from Elsfield, is set to fight it out for a place at Wimbledon in a play-off next Thursday and Friday.

The 22-year-old is one of 16 hopefuls competing for two slots with the play-off set to take place at Wimbledon's Aorangi Park.

Brown is calling on supporters to help her succeed and has launched a public crowd funding appeal at pledgesports.org/ projects/tennis-sponsorshiplucy-brown.

New United assistant

FOOTBALL: Banbury United have appointed former Didcot Town manager Stuart Peace as Mike Ford's assistant.

The ex-Oxford United player has also taken on board Matt Haycocks and Mike Byrne as coaches for his side.

Peace was responsible for the FA Vase-winning Didcot Town side in 2005 and also served as assistant at Oxford City.

United will play in the Evo-Stik League Southern Division 1 South & West this season following the relegation from the Premier Division.

Welsh's Kassam tenure to end?

RUGBY: London Welsh remained tight-lipped last night on reports that the club are 'seriously considering' leaving the Kassam Stadium.

The Exiles previously signed a three-year contract to play in Oxford in April 2014, but were relegated from the Aviva Premiership last season.

An exit from the Kassam Stadium has been previously discussed, as well as plans to redevelop Witney Town Football Club's former ground into a 10,000 capacity ground.

The club and stadium owners Firoka have so far refused to comment on the reports.
